DEFENDANTS-APPELLANTS' SECOND MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to Practice Book § 66-1, the Defendants-Appellants, Alex Jones and Free Speech Systems, LLC, hereby respectfully move the Court for a 7-day extension of time to file their petition for certification, which is currently due on January 13, 2025, rendering the new due date Monday, January 20, 2025.

A prior extension of time was filed in part due to the petitioners' seeking pro hac vice counsel. Said counsel has been admitted in this case subject to his supervision by the undersigned. It has become apparent that there may be a conflict arising out of this joint representation. The undersigned needs an additional week to determine if there is such a conflict and whether it can be overcome. The undersigned has spoken with Plaintiffs' counsel and they do not object to this extension.

This is the defendants-appellants' Second Motion for Extension of Time. The undersigned is prepared to file a petition. The clients' desire to hire pro hac vice counsel has led to a situation in which the undersigned may have an actual conflict of interest.

1. Brief History of the Case

The present case is a consolidated appeal of three civil actions that were filed in 2018 tried in the Waterbury Judicial District. The trial was limited to damages, as a result of a disciplinary default. After several weeks of trial, on October 12, 2022, the jury returned a verdict assessing compensatory damages of $965 million and awarding common law punitive damages of attorneys' fees and costs. Thereafter, on November 10, the trial court (Bellis, J.) awarded common law punitive damages in attorney's fees of $321,650,000 and costs of $1,489,555.94 and CUTPA punitive damages of $150 million.

The Appellate Court decision was officially released on December 10, 2024. That decision reversed the CUTPA damages but upheld the remaining damages and attorneys' fees.

2. Specific Facts Relied Upon

The undersigned was trial counsel and appellate counsel in the underlying matter and has been asked by his clients to work with pro hac vice counsel on further applications to the Court. Pro hac vice counsel has been admitted subject the undersigned's supervision of his work and the undersigned's assuming responsibility for his work. In the course of developing this relationship, a conflict has arisen. The undersigned requires an additional week to sort out the issues relating to that conflict.

3. Legal Grounds

The Defendants-Appellants rely upon Practice Book §§ 66-1 and 66-2. Sec. 66-1(b) provides that the “time provided for taking any step necessary to prosecute or to defend the appeal may be extended by the court in which the appeal is pending.” Practice Book § 66-1(2) grants the appellate clerk authority to grant or deny motions for extensions of time promptly.

4. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the Defendants-Appellants respectfully ask this Court to grant the instant motion and asserts that there is good cause for the requested extension.
